

The 107 (Aberdeen) Squadron activity update for the first quarter of 2014 is as follows

Four cadets were selected for an Air Experience Flight in our Grob Tutor aircraft which gives them around 25 minutes flying time and the chance to handle the controls under direction of the instructor. Another four will be selected for our March flying allocation.

Three cadets took part in the North East Scotland Wing Cross Country competition Cdt Carl Fuhrmann gaining a silver medal in the over-17s Boys competition.

On our February sports evening a group of cadets went to a swimming pool for their basic swimming proficiency test. Five cadets passed.

Many cadets at the squadron have First Aid qualifications and refresher training has been given in preparation for the Wing First Aid competition which is to be held during March.

To commemorate the centenary of the First World War, Aberdeen Opera Company performed "Oh What a Lovely War" at the Aberdeen Arts Centre. Throughout the week cadets from 107 (Aberdeen) Squadron attended the performances to collect on behalf of Erskine Hospital which cares for ex-Service and Serving men and women, providing rehabilitation, nursing and dementia care in homes throughout Scotland.

We will be sending cadets to two camps in April, a Radio Controlled Model Aircraft Flying camp and a week-long camp at an RAF Base.
