

grec

Equality when you really need it

Grampian Regional Equality Council How We Can Help You and Your Community

GREC is the lead voluntary/third sector organisation in the North of Scotland for equality matters and is “working with others to ensure that everyone is valued for who they are and is able to contribute with encouragement and without fear of discrimination or unfair treatment.”

Our services greatly help support individual members of the public and community organisations:

-INTRANS:

if you require professional interpreting and translation support.

-MEDIATION & EARLY CONFLICT RESOLUTION:

helps to reach a mutually acceptable solution to disputes or problems before they escalate.

-EQUALITY INFORMATION:

a range of information and advice available regarding equality matters and achieving equality of opportunity for all.

-CASEWORK SERVICE:

support if you have experienced discrimination or been subjected to or witnessed a prejudice incident/hate crime.

-TRAINING:

training tailored to meet your needs. Courses available on aspects such as equality, recognising and tackling harassment & bullying at work and much more!

-SCHOOLS AND YOUTH SUPPORT:

Anne Frank Awards and presentations to schools. Tackling bullying. Me-time Counselling Service available for children and young people affected by discrimination, bullying, prejudice incidents.

-COMMUNITY WORK:

Assistance to achieve good relations in our communities.

To access or for further information about any of these services please contact GREC on:

tel: 01224 595505 - e-mail: info@grec.co.uk - web: www.grec.co.uk

GREC is a Registered Scottish Charity: SC001823 Company No. 396286
GREC is a member of the Scottish Mediation Network and listed in the Scottish Mediation Register
