Cove Library lends a range of items for all ages; books covering a wide range of topics and tastes, including titles in large print and audio book, music on CD, feature films, TV series, documentaries and children's programmes on DVD and language courses.

There's free computer, internet and WiFi access and many online resources such as eBooks, eMagazines, newspapers, family history, reference and language learning, some of which you can also access from home or on the go.

Bookbug sessions, for babies, toddlers and their families, are held fortnightly on Fridays at 2.15 pm. The library meeting room can be booked for community use and photocopying facilities and a small selection of daily newspapers are also available.

(There are charges for photocopying and to borrow CDs and DVDs).
