

Cove Youth Football Club 2007 - tracksuits for the boys!

Gemma Chalmers, proposed lease holder for The Solar Lounge, Loirston Avenue, presents Cove Youth Football Club 2007 age groups head coach, David Adams with the new tracksuits for the boys. Recently moving into the 7 v 7 competition the boys will certainly look the part for the season ahead.

The contribution for the tracksuits have come from Pete Cheung of Wee China, The Haar Rock Coffee, James Coleman of Ruby Tuesday and John Jones / Gemma Chalmers of The Solar Lounge. All businesses are hoping to be open over the coming few months and hopefully this is the first of many contributions to the local community.
