

Situations Vacant Cove Area

Community Councillor for Cove

Have a few hours to spare? Retired?

Vacancies exist for residents of the Cove area.
Post holders must care about their community.

DUTIES Attend a meeting on the last Monday of each month and get involved to a level of your choice.

Being a Community Councillor allows local people to act as a bridge between their community and public authorities, giving their area a say in local service delivery and other matters that affect them.

Aberdeen City Council is committed to strengthening local democracy and community involvement. Your local community is important and when it comes to tackling the big issues that affect it, you do not have to be just a spectator.

Becoming a Community Councillor in Aberdeen gives you the opportunity to play a vital role in decision making. You do not need any special skills and anyone who lives in the Community Council area and is on the electoral roll can get involved.

If you would like to become a Community Councillor for the Cove area please contact Cove and Altens Community Council for more details:-

S Porter, Secretary 01224 897399

N Pearce 01224 897107

or email info@cove-bay.com

www.cove-bay.com
