

Doonies Rare Breed Farm News

RAIN, WIND AND MUD! The conditions have been awful at the farm, high winds caused our cover to one of the Poly tunnels to rip and blow off, thankfully no animals were inside at the time. It has not been a very good start to 2016.

Lambing is upon us next month. Farmer Graham is busy setting up pens for the first sheep to lamb.

That is all the news for now.

The Lennox Family

